Central Presbyterian Church

Newark, New Jersey

Dedication of Chimes

Sunday, February 6, 1944

The officers, members and pastor of Central Presbyterian Church, here unite to thank Mrs. Eva S. Albee for her splendid and generous gift which has made the rehabilitation of our Chimes possible. The work has been done by the son of Mrs. Albee and a member of this church. Thomas Irving Albee was born on February 6, 1896, and died on August 21, 1932. It is an instance of Divine Providence that the service today occurs on the anniversary of the date of his birth. During World War I, he served in the Aviation Division of the U. S. Navy.

A Memorial To

The Chimes were first installed in the Church in the year 1915. They were a splendid complement to the organ which had been installed in the year 1900.

LILLIAN S. GREENWAY, Mica, B., assistant to the pastor and Director of Music

MABEL FOSCATO, Organist

Originally, the Chimes were behind the organ pipes and not exposed in view. However, in this new installation, on the left-front wall of the Church, open to our view, they will add to the beauty of the sanctuary. Their tones will once again enrich our worship. The Chimes have been beautifully lacquered with a gold finish. The action controlling them is electric and is connected with the organ key-board. Due to the splendid work which Elder Lester F. Bird has done in the past few years, it will be possible, by means of the electric speaking system, to send the music of the Chimes out-of-doors from the Church tower, providing an open-air ministry of music through the playing of familiar hymns.

This re-installation of the Chimes in such a new and inspiring setting is a lovely finishing-touch to all the splendid work that has been done to improve the organ, choir-loft and pulpit.

The reconstruction of both the Chimes and the Organ is the work of Mr. Earle J. Beach, organ-builder of Newark. We appreciate his helpfulness and skill in the accomplishment of this work.

Prayer and General Response

DEDICATION OF CHIMES

Minister: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, we dedicate these Chimes to the Praise of Almighty God.

People: "Praise God in the sanctuary; Praise Him in the firmament of His power; Praise Him with the sound of the trumpet; Praise Him with psalmery and harp."

Minister: We dedicate these Chimes to the cultivation of a high art; to the interpretation of the message of the Masters of music, to an appreciation of the great dogmologies of the Church, and to the development of the language of praise which belongeth to both heaven and earth.

People: "Praise Him with stringed instruments and organs. Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord."

Minister: We dedicate these Chimes to the Wedding march, to Thanksgiving on festive occasions, and to such inspiration in the service of song that all people may praise the Lord.

People: "O sing unto the Lord a new song: sing unto the Lord all the earth, in psalm and hymn and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord."

Minister: We dedicate these Chimes to the healing of life's discord, and the revealing of the hidden soul of harmony; to the lifting of the depressed and the comfort of the sorrowing; to the humbling of the heart before the eternal mysteries, and the lifting of the soul to abiding beauty and joy by the Gospel of infinite love and goodwill.

People: "That at the name of Jesus, every knee should bow of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father."

PRAYER OF DEDICATION

Almighty God, to Thee we dedicate these Chimes this morning. Be pleased, we pray Thee, to accept them as a song of praise unto Thee. Grant that their music, with accompanying song, may come as a blessed benediction upon all who worship here. May they become undying music in the world as their notes of cheer, comfort, communion, and courage are modulated into human lives for daily tasks and noble service. To all Organists who shall sound their notes, and to all worshippers who shall be lifted Godward by their voice, may there come at times the sweep of hallelujahs from the throne of the Redeemed until earth shall be attuned to heaven above, singing hallelujah to Him who reigneth, King of Kings, and Lord of lords, through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.
